Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that critical incidents or potential critical incidents are managed appropriately and applies to all Everest Institute of Education (Ei) international, as well as domestic students. This complies with Chapter 3 - Clause 1 - Support and Progression of the Standards for RTO's 2015 & Standard 6 of the National Code of Practice for Registration Authorities and Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018.

Definitions

Critical incident means a traumatic event or the threat of such (within or outside Australia) which causes extreme stress, fear or injury. Critical incidents could include, but are not limited to, events such as:

- Missing students
- Severe verbal or psychological aggression
- Death, serious injury or any threat of these
- Natural disaster; and
- Issues such as domestic violence, sexual assault, drug or alcohol abuse.

Critical Incident Team means a group of persons specified by Ei to plan an immediate response, allocate responsibilities and determine ongoing strategies. This role has been allocated to:

- Director of Operations
- General Manager
- Ei Critical Incident Committee

Designated person means any Ei staff member who either witnesses or is informed about an actual or potential incident. The designated person should immediately inform the most senior member of staff available of the incident. In the meantime, however, the designated person may need to assume temporary control of a critical incident site.

DET means Department of Education and Training

Policy

1. Everest Institute of Education (Ei) is committed to protecting staff and students in the event of a critical incident and will take appropriate actions to maximise the safety of all staff and students and any other persons involved in the critical incident.
2. Everest Institute of Education (Ei) ensures that as far as possible risk reduction measures are in place to reduce the likelihood of a critical incident. This is specified in Ei’s Health and Safety Policy and Procedure.
3. A designated officer and/or critical incident team will manage critical incidents.
4. All staff will receive induction into their role which will include information about health and safety, as well as critical incidents. Training and updates to information will be provided to staff on a regular basis.
5. As per Standards 6.4 and 6.5, students will also receive information about health and safety, including critical incidents and the details of the contact officer they would contact in the event of a critical incident on their orientation day. Updates to information will be provided to students as and when they require.
6. Everest Institute of Education (Ei) will ensure that appropriate post-incident support is provided as required.
7. Everest Institute’s will include protocols for informing the police, the Department of Home Affairs and the parents of the student, if appropriate.
8. Everest Institute of Education (Ei) response to critical incidents will always be evaluated and improvements identified and implemented as required.
