Purpose

This policy is to ensure that Everest Institute of Education (Ei) uses education agents that have an appropriate knowledge and understanding of the Australian international education industry and do not use education agents who are dishonest or lack of integrity.

This policy will also ensure that intending students will benefit from the monitoring strategies of Ei and their ability to terminate agreements with education agents who engage in false or misleading recruitment practices.

This ensures compliance with Standard 4 of the National Code of Practice for Registration Authorities and Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018 and Clause 4.1 Standards for Registered Training Organisations 2015 – Chapter 1 – Marketing and recruitment.

Definitions

Agent means a person or organisation with the authority to promote Ei’s courses and services to Students or intending Students in nominated regions.

Agents Agreement means the agreement between Ei and the Agent including the Schedules.

CRICOS means Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students.

DET means Department of Education and Training

Department of Home Affairs is a central policy agency, providing coordinated strategy and policy leadership for Australia's national and transport security, federal law enforcement, criminal justice, cyber security, border, immigration, multicultural affairs, emergency management and trade related functions.

Ei means Everest Institute

ESOS Act means Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 of the Commonwealth of Australia.

ESOS Regulations means Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 of the Commonwealth of Australia.

National Code means National Code of Practice for Registration Authorities and Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students.

Prospective Student means A person who intends to become, or who has taken any steps towards becoming, a Student an 'overseas Student' or 'intending overseas Student' as defined by the ESOS Act.

International Students

Relevant Legislation means

- the ESOS Act 2000;
- the ESOS Regulations 2001;
- the Migration Act 1958;
- the Migration Regulations 1994;
- the National Code 2018;
- the Standards for Registered Training Organisations 2015 (SRT0 2015) and
- Any other legislation or regulations relevant to governing the provision of education to overseas Students in Australia.

Student means A person (whether within or outside Australia) who holds a Student Visa and is an 'overseas Student' as defined by the ESOS Act.

Policy

1. Everest Institute of Education (Ei) will only work with reputable education agents who have an appropriate knowledge and understanding of the Australian international education industry.
2. Everest Institute of Education (Ei) will only engage agents who have completed the Education Agents Training Course (EATC) offered by PIER (Professional International Education Resources) or a recognized equivalent and belong to a professional association representing education agents where one exists.
3. Everest Institute of Education (Ei) develops and implements a written agreement with each education agent that is engaged to recruit students on its behalf. Written agreements will specify the responsibility of the education agent and Ei and the need to abide by the National Code 2018, including monitoring arrangements and termination conditions in place.
4. A list of education agents with whom Everest Institute of Education (Ei) has a written agreement will be included on Ei's website. As a minimum, this information will include the agency name, name of the principal agent, legal entity and street address.
5. Everest Institute of Education (Ei) will enter and maintain education agent details in Provider Registration and International Student Management System (PRISMS).
6. Everest Institute of Education (Ei) will not accept students from an education agent or enter into an agreement with an education agent where it is known or there are grounds for believing an education agent to be:
 - ♦ Engaged in or have previously been engaged in, dishonest practices, including the deliberate attempt to recruit a student where this clearly conflicts with the obligations of Ei under Standard 7 of the National Code 2018 (Ei Course Transfer Policy and Procedure).
 - ♦ Facilitating the enrolment of a student who the education agents believes will not comply with the conditions of his or her student visa.
 - ♦ Using the Provider Registration and International Students Management System (PRISMS) to create Confirmations of Enrolment for other than a bona fide student.
 - ♦ Providing immigration advice where not authorized to do so under the Migration Act 1958.
6. Where Everest Institute of Education (Ei) suspects an education agent of acting unethically but does not have a written agreement with the agent, Ei will inform both Department of Home Affairs and the Department of Education and Training of its concerns.

International Students

7. The monitoring activities of Everest Institute of Education (Ei) will identify where an agent may be involved in any of the above activities. Ei will also take into account reports from students where the number of students is a reasonable proportion of the students recruited by an agent (e.g. 3 in 10 students).
8. Where Everest Institute of Education (Ei) has entered into a written agreement with an education agent and subsequently becomes aware, or reasonably suspects, that the agent (or employee or sub-contractor of that agent) has engaged in any of the activities specified in 4 of this Policy, Ei will immediately terminate the written agreement with the education agent. Where an employee or sub-contractor was responsible for this conduct and the education agent has already terminated the relationship with that individual, this paragraph does not apply.
9. Where Everest Institute of Education (Ei) becomes aware that its education agent has not declared conflicts of interest with its duties as an education agent of the registered provider. Ei will immediately terminate the written agreement with the education agent. This provision is to ensure transparency in the education agent's activities. Conflicts of interest include, but are not limited to:
 - when the Education agent charges services fees to both overseas students and registered providers for the same service;
 - where an education agent has a financial interest in a private education provider; or
 - where an employee of an education agent has a personal relationship with an employee of the education provider.
10. Education agents will be provided with up to date and accurate marketing information that meets the requirements of Everest Institute of Education (Ei) Marketing and Advertising Policy.
10. Information, whether disseminated directly by Ei or on its behalf, will be both accurate and factual, and:
 - accurately represents the services it provides and the training products on its scope of registration
 - includes its RTO Code
 - refers to another person or organisation in its marketing material only if the consent of that person or organisation has been obtained
 - uses the NRT Logo only in accordance with the conditions of use specified in Schedule 4
 - makes clear where a third party is recruiting prospective learners for Ei on its behalf
 - distinguishes where it is delivering training and assessment on behalf of another RTO or where training and assessment is being delivered on its behalf by a third party
 - distinguishes between nationally recognised training and assessment leading to the issuance of AQF certification documentation from any other training or assessment delivered by the RTO
 - includes the title and code of any training product, as published on the National Register, referred to in that information
 - only advertises or markets a non-current training product while it remains on the Ei's scope of registration
 - only advertises or markets that a training product it delivers will enable learners to obtain a licensed or regulated outcome where this has been confirmed by the industry regulator in the jurisdiction in which it is being advertised
 - includes details about any VET FEE-HELP, government funded subsidy or other financial support arrangements associated with the Ei's provision of training and assessment, and

International Students

- does not guarantee that:
 - a learner will successfully complete a training product on its scope of registration, or
 - a training product can be completed in a manner which does not meet the requirements of Clause 1.1 and 1.2, of the Standards for Registered Training Organisations 2015 or
 - a learner will obtain a particular employment outcome where this is outside the control of Ei.
